Selvester Nettles, etc., * CASE NO.

Defendants. *

RECEIVED
2005 AUG 19 P 1:41
FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
MOBILE

Motion To Object The Recommendation of The Magistrate Judge.

Plaintiff Claim Concerning defendants Seals, Nettles, Black-ledge, and Holt was actions perform maliciously to increase his security level (S.L.) From minimum to Maximum to Cause plaintiff physical harm. Plaintiff made known such action (in his Complaint) to this Court in hopes this Honorable Court would grant plaintiff such relief (as protection) which is affordable by this Court to implement according to the Laws of this state and Country. Mrs. Seals used such tactic (under the supervision of Mr. Nettles, Mr. Blackledge, Mr. Holt and Mr. Boyd) to frighten plaintiff into further submission. Mrs. Seals has impose an "atypical and significant" hardship on the plaintiff by taking plaintiff off the squad, where in, plaintiff was able to go out of the fences at Bullock Correctional Facility

(here after referred to as (B.C.F.)) and work around Civilians on several days each week. Plaintiff met the Criteria as prescribed in Mrs. Seals Classification Manual yet, she made sure plaintiff did not leave (B.C.F.) to exercise even more liberty in the sense of prison terms. Plaintiff knows from past experiences the prison officials will do whatever they can (if they believe they can get away with it) to interfere with plaintiff ability to function mentally and physically. Plaintiff is aware defendants Mr. Holt, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Nettles, Mrs Seals and Mr. Blackledge partaked in inappropriate, dangerous be-behavior / practices in order to interfere with plaintiff ability to think clearly and inform this Court ~~of~~ (their) actions, which could and did cause plaintiff physical and mental harm. When plaintiff filed a 1983 Civil Suit Case No. 99-D-1405-N) against defendants Holt, Blackledge and several other prison officials concerning violations of [his] Civil rights defendants showed plaintiff first hand what they would do to him whenever they wanted to (force psychotropic drugs into plaintiff body without Court order and/or affording plaintiff a hearing). Plaintiff often fears defendants and their associates (other prison officials) will try to subdue plaintiff with force, excessive psychotropic drugs again as in 2001, three (3) months prior to the evidentiary hearing Case No. 99-D-1405-N). Plaintiff knows first hand through experience defendants will go to extremes to disorient plaintiff again to make it difficult and impossible for him to properly declare the facts and present the issues clearly to this Court with/ by the use of psychotropic drugs. Plaintiff has good reasons to believe Mrs. Seals, Mr. Blackledge conspired with Captain Nettles and Lt. Babers in order to create such situation with plaintiff in order to place him in the mental health Facility which is being presently built at (B.C.F.). Plaintiff understands the equal protection Clauses implements "when one inmate is intitled to certain benefits through Criteria, etc., all other inmates which met that Criteria must be afforded the same oppertunities regardless of race, gender, or national origin, etc".

Plaintiff did his best to explain to the Court in his Complaint defendants refusal to place plaintiff in protective Custody while in the seg. Unit at (B.C.F.). Defendants willingly discriminated against plaintiff because he is considered a afro-American desented and does not have the resources available to him to afford Counsel, Plaintiff truely believes if he was afforded Counsel by the Court the Counselor would incourage and/or insist the defendants detour From any and all Futher motives / acts of retaliation. Plaintiff thinks he understands the Courts View of (him) not having a protective interest Concerning also the procedures / criteria effecting [his] classification level. Plaintiff attempts to Manifest defendant Seals Motives Which were implemented to expose plaintiff to a level five (5) prison / maximum, where in, it is easier for defendants and / or their associates to influence other inmates to harm plaintiff physically. Plaintiff knows inmates at Maximum prisons often times developing an attitude (which they may believe) they may never live their lives outside the prison walls. IF this Honorable Court would afford plaintiff the bare minimum of relief by granting the plaintiff motion for protection order this within itself would relieve some of plaintiff anxieties and fears of being harm at the hands

OF these angry defendants.

Plaintiff was denied protective Custody (here after referred to as (P.C.)) at (B.C.F.) by defendants Blackledge, Nettles, Holt, Boyd Foster, Ruffin, Bailey, Specks, Jackson, Babers, Williams and M. Austin. Plaintiff sent many request slips to Warden Boyd and Warden Holt by the hands officer Foster, officer Ruffin officer Bailey and other prison officials which work the seg. Unit at (B.C.F.) All such request slips went unanswered. Plaintiff was permitted to talk with (which has the Authority as a prison officials to change his status to protect him) Captain

Nettles. Plaintiff stayed in the Seg. Unit at (B.C.F.) From November 2004 to March 3, 2005. Plaintiff was never afforded the opportunity to talk with either Warden Holt or Warden Boyd. Plaintiff has good reason to believe if he had, had opportunity to talk to Warden Holt and/or Warden Boyd plaintiff would have been placed in a single cell as white inmates are placed in single cells for their safety. Plaintiff told/ explain how he had been assault, nevertheless, defendant Babers, Jackson, Blackledge, Bailey and Nettles disregarded plaintiff Complaint knowing

(he would be the only prison official with the authority to make the change) in which, plaintiff would be permitted to talk with.

Done this the 17th day of August, 2005.

Respectfully Submitted,
